GLOBAL ACTION AGAINST MASS ATROCITY CRIMES

Platform for Prevention

The Global Action Against Mass Atrocity Crimes (GAAMAC) is a State-led network of States, civil society and academic institutions committed to preventing atrocities worldwide.

State-centered

States have the primary responsibility to prevent atrocities. GAAMAC supports States in establishing national mechanisms and policies for permanent prevention. Its long-term goal is for each State to be equipped domestically to prevent atrocities.

Diverse

GAAMAC is a female-led, horizontal network, acting as an enabling connector between States, civil society and academic institutions. It is a platform where actors can come together, share experiences and cooperate with each other.

Constructive

GAAMAC's community shares good practices, expertise and experiences, jointly learning from successes and failures and looking for concrete and feasible solutions.

Innovative

GAAMAC is an incubator of new ideas and local initiatives to prevent atrocities. Its unique composition allows States, civil society actors and academic institutions to establish creative synergies they could not have elsewhere.

GAAMAC also promotes Regional Initiatives and Working Groups that translate its global vision into culturally relevant, concrete initiatives. A special emphasis is placed on South-South exchange of expertise, cooperation, and ownership.
